BURNING OF BRITISH STEAM-SHIP IN HARBOR OF MALTA LITERAL HOLOCAUST.

THEY HAD NO CHANCE OF ESCAPE

Before the Eyes of Horrified Spectators Passengers and Crew Go to Death by Fire and Water-Gale Prevented Rescue.

Valetta, Island of Malta, Nov. 25 -Nearly 200 persons, passengers and crew of the Ellerman line steamer Sardina, are believed to have perish ed today, when the steamer was destroyed by fire, just after she had sailed for Alexandria, Egypt.

The Sardina was scarcely a mile off from Grand Harbor when the first sign of fire appeared, and with a strong wind to fan the flames the entire ship was soon ablaze. The passengers and crew had scarcely cuance for their lives.

A wild scene of panic ensued on board, as the rapidly spreading flames drove the passengers to the rails, and many excited ones, not even waiting for boats to be lowered, plunged into the sea. Scores are believed to have been drowned. Others were trapped in the fire and literally roasted to death or smothered with- little town of Tiptonville, bordering out a chance for their lives.

CHIP ON KAISER'S SHOULDER

Whether or not the story printedo in the American press is an accu rate summary of the now mous interview between Dr. Hale and Emperor William may never known, but even though denials were to be made by both parties to th dialogue, it would not wholly eras the impression that the kaiser has been quoted correctly.

! is, of course, well authenticated that such an interview did actually take place, as has been described that it was secured by the American reagazine writer for reproduction in the Century; that the publication had the story in plate form ready for issie when its plans suddenly were changed and the whole thing was suppressed, presumably upon representations from Berlin.

With these known facts it is easy to conjecture that the emperor talked upon world politics. What he really raid can be known with certainty only from information furnished by himself or by Dr. Hale. What it is claimed he said lacks authority, bu what has been published under this qualification has so much plausibility, both in circumstance and in statement, as to warrant its acceptance until proof to the contrary is fur-

WAY CHURCH.

A Number Went Forward at the Close and the Power of God's Spirit Was Manifested Throughout the Evening.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

Evangelist Hamilton's sermon last night on "The Devil's Prayer" made a profound impression upon the au dience at the Broadway Presbyterian church. It was a sermon on the un pardonable sin.

A number went forward at the close, and the power of God's Spirit was manifest throughout the meeting. The singing, as usual, was a great inspiration. Miss Grace Campbell sang a solo, "Face to Face," and after the sermon Mr. Henderson sang "What Then?" The subject of tonight's sermon will be "Shelter."

The evangelist took for his text last night the words of the man possessed with a devil addressed to Jesus, "Let us alone." He said: "If there were evil spirits in the days of Jesus, there are evil spirits today in the children of dis disobedience. Some men care more for their pigs and for the margin on their goods than they do for the Lord Jesus.

"There are four times when this prayer, 'Let us alone,' is answered. Here and now. 'My Spirit will not always strive with men.' 'Quench | not the spirit.' Therefore the Spirit! can be quenched. He gives men over to their reprobate mind as he did of old. After He has wept and pleaded Judea, Omeha, Dry Fork, Dinsmore, Hodges, Beadie and Cora Wainscott; with some in vain He has given them Parthenon, Mossville Limestone, Red-Messrs. Omer Hodges, Louie Davis, the reins and let them go, saying, unsaved man has heard enough preaching to convert Africa.

> 'There is a time, we know not when, A place we know not where, That seals the destiny of man

For glory or despair.' "The devil's prayer is answered in death. In the mists and shadows of a gathering eternity he shall realize he is alone. What difference if your friends go with you down to the portals of eternity and you have no Savior saying, 'It is I. Be not afraid.'

"The devil's prayer is answered in the judgment. The man who if let alone here and at death is let alone at the judgment bar of God. Men spurn the offer of salvation, they mock at the Pible and say there is no God. no eternity, no heaven, no retribution; but not at the judgment where they shall see Christ in a His majesty.

"The devil's prayer shall be answered in hell in conscious, unutterable and eternal suffering. No intelligent person wants to be thus let alone. Your heart is crying out after God. If you will start toward God He will run toward you.

"There are decisions for eternity tonight. As some shall decide this question they shall be on the upgrade to glory or on the downgrade to de-

A CLOSING-OUT SALE.

Kemp Hieronymus Conducted It for E. W. Hughes.

(From Wednesday's Daily.) Ed W. Hughes having decided to remove to Oklahoma held a closing out sale of his personal property at Greenlawn, twelve miles north, Tues

The sale was well attended by his neighbors, who proved liberal buyers, and satisfactory prices were realized on stock, especially. One pair of 4-year old mules brought $350; a pair of work horses went at $250; a saddle and driving herse for $101, and other stock in proportion.

Milch cows sold from $27 to $38; brood sows sold from $9 to $14.50, and stock hogs at about 5 cents per

Col. Kemp Hieronymus conducted the sale to the satisfaction of Mr. Hughes, and Col. Tom Roberts looked after the books, the sale amounting to about $1,500.

Jake Broyles served a substantial lunch to the satisfaction of all.

(From 'Cuesday's Daily) George Monroe was arrested by the police last afternoon on suspicion of having stolen two quart botles of whisky. Today Police Judge Gresham sent him to jail for five days, pending an investigation.

It is believed the two quarts are a portion of a 12-quart case stolen from he Missouri Pacific depot Monday, it being a shipment from Peter Pehl to an out-of-town customer.

But where on earth did the custom [originate? People from out of town who visit New York on Thanksgiving Day look in astonishment at the ragamuffins parading the street and say, "What a strange custom. We don't! have this at home." No more do they. The Thanksgiving Ragamuffin is New York, all through.

Where did the custom originate? People who like to dig these things out have tried to trace the matter back to its origin but in vain. Some declare that the carnival is a survival of the old English "Harvest Home." But there are no proofs of this, and besides Harvest Home dcesn't come at this time of year; furthermore, the English don't celebrate it with maudlin costumes. Nor is the custom a survival of the Christmas "Waits." We have those a: their own real time. No, nobody seems able to trace the Thanksgiv ing Ragamuffin back. BULLETS AT SWEET SPRINGS FOR MEN WHO SOUGHT TO INTERFERE.

DID CLEVER JOB SUNDAY MORNING

After Slowing Open Safe With Dynamite Five Robbers Calmly Walked Away With Between $3,500 and $3,600.

Sweet Springs, Mo., Nov. 23 .- The Bank of Sweet Springs was robbed between Sedalia and Lexington. about 3 o'clock Sunday morning, after the safe had been blown open with dynamite. The robbers escaped with ROYAL HAREN FOR SALE dynamite. The robbers escaped with between $3,500 and $3,600 in cur rency.

The bank building, a two-story brick structure, is in Lexington avenue in the old part of the town. M. G. Brown is president and Louis King is cashier of the bank. The capital stock of the bank is $100,000.

About 3 o'clock Sunday morning persons living in the vicinity of the bank were awakened by what they believed was a revolver shot, followed by a second shot a few minutes

Jacob Stallings, a grocer, who occupied a room in the immediate neighborhood, raised a window to investigate. No sooner had he put his head out than he was commanded by a man who was standing guard on the sidewalk only a few feet distant, to "get back there if you don't want your head shot off." Two shots followed the command.

John Lindsey, rooming on the opposite side of the street from the bank, was awakened by the sho's and raised his window to investigate. He, too, was cautioned against any further effort to investigate, after a shot had been fired at him by the ly wealthy, and, as his harem consame guard who had fired at Stallings.

Fifteen minutes later three men were seen to leave the bank building and walk east on Lexington avenue. The last seen of them they were headed toward the Missouri Pacific depot. The two men, who stood guard near "strike" among the women of the the bank building, had joined the trio in the meantime.

By this time the roomers at Mrs. by Stallings, Lindsay and others who harem inmates in the world enjoy had been aroused by the explosions such privileges and liberties as do and revolver shots, hastened to the those of the sultan's seraglio, and up bank building. This number of voters, properly distributed, could, under the initiative and referendum amendment recently adopted, force a vote on the question without consulting not yet quieted down, in the fear the legislature.

What is probably more interesting to the people who own breweries and liberty failed. salcons is the fact that the advocates of prehibition are threatening to use their power. As long as it required a vote of the legislature to submit the question to the party machines could k-ep it in the background, but now they are powerless to prevent a submission of the question, although they might be able to beat such an amendment at the election.

The new amendment will become effective early next week, when its adeption will be certified by the sec retary of state. Under a decision of the supreme court an amendment takes effect whenever its adoption is officially declared. Under the provisons of the amendment, 8 per cent of the voters or two-thirds of the conpressional districts of the state may ed on at the next general election.

THE MEETING OF SOROSIS

Ladies Carried Out Delightful Pro gram at Library.

(From Monday's Daily.) The ladies of Sorosis carried out a delightful program at the public library this afternoon, it being known as "Women's Day," with Mrs. E. A Wood as leader.

The "current events" section was in charge of Mrs. E. B. Farley, those participating being Miss Jessie' Blair, Mesdames Charles Van Antwern, Sallie Potter Sneed, Harry W. Servant, O. M. Barnett and F. H. Brinkerhoff.

The subject of Mrs Wood's paper was, "What Science and Common Sense Are Doing for the Home." and the effort was one of the most instructive and entertaining ever presented to the ladies of Sorosis.

Mrs. Charles Van Antwerp had a splendid paper on "Home-Making Versus Housekeeping," after which Mrs. W. J. Maltby read an excellent paper, "Some Old-Fashioned Doubts About the New Woman."

"Ideal Women" was the next number on the program, Mrs. D. H. Smith telling of the "commonplace woman," Mrs. J. B Mockbee of the "artificial," Mrs. W. M. Alspaugh of the "domes tic," Mrs. C. C. Evans of the "think ing," Miss Florence Whittier of the "growing" and Miss Jessie Blair of the "hving."

The concluding number on the pronoon by the rector, Rev. Douglass gram was an entertaining discussion of "Woman Suffrage," participated in by Mesdames H. B. Cole and S. M. Lesher.

The arresting officer removed the handcuff from one wrist while the prisoner ate supper at a restaurant, and Hines gave him the slip, escaping from a rear door.

Friday morning he boarded the train at Calhoun, having bought a ticket to Clinton. The conductor wired ahead to have an afficer at the depot, as Hines still wore the handcuff on one wrist.

The fellow, however, got off at Lewis and was afterwards seen about noon walking on the railroad track toward Clinton. At North Clinton Marshal Davis apprehended him and put him behind the bars.

WILL ERECT MONUMENT

To the Memory of Official Who Died "On Duty."

The grace of the late City Marshal James Ryan, of Warrensburg, is to be marked with a beautiful monument now being finished by C. H, Haynen, of the Heynen Monument Works. The monument is inscribed:

> "James Ryan, City Marshal, Killed Easter Sunday, April 19, 1908, In the Performance of His Official Duties."

City Marshal Ryan was killed by Byron Hall, whom he attempted to (Hall) had had on the train which brought him to Warrensburg.

A duel followed, in which Ryan, assisted by Night Marshal Basham and Robert Pollock, participated. Ryan and Basham were killed by Hall before he fell mortally wounded. The duel was fought in a Warrersburg

The monument will be ready to ship to Warrensburg in a few days.

Baby Free

The child of today is the parent of the future, and whether it grows up healthy and strong, or puny and weak, depends upon the intelligence of its parents, for most children are born into the world healthy, but thousands become future weaklings between become future weakings between birth and the age of ten, when the parents are still in greatest control.

The prime cause of trouble is in the stomach. A baby that is digesting its food seldom cries and always looks cheerful; the little child whose stomach is good romps and plays and never whines; the growing child learns well at school and is growing child learns well at school and is eager for fun if its head is clear and its stomach light, and that means if it has no constitution.

The best and safest way to cure any irregularity of the stomach and bowels in children is by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a liquid laxative wonderful in its effect as Mrs. John W. Dunham, Apple Creek, O., Mrs. H. L. Cullam, Plainville, Ind., and numerous others can testify who give it to their children with extraordinary results. A bottle only costs 50 cents or $1 according to the size you want, and even one 50-cent bottle will do a wonderful amount of good in a family. It can be given to any member of the family in constinction, sour stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, dyspessia, heartburn, sick headache and similar digestive troubles.

CONTEST BETWEEN CRIMSON AND BLUE RESULTED IN VIC-TORY FOR FORMER.

THIRTY-FIVE THOUSAND ATTENDED

Score Was 4 to 0 and Was Made in the First Half-Harvard Team Best Ever Organized-Chicago Beat Wisconsin.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 21.-In the presence of one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a contest, the Harvard colleg football cleven defeated the Yale eleven at New Haven to day, the final result being 4 to 0, the only score being made on a field goal in the first half.

Thirty-five thousand football enthu giasts, rooters for the two aggregations, assembled on the grounds to cheer their respective teams to victory and for an hour before the opening of the gates, more than two hours before the play was called. 5.-000 eager spectators stood outside the gates waiting for admission.

Harvard made forty one rushes for a total of 182 yards' gain, while Yale's nineteen rushes netted a gain of only fifty-six yards
